OCTOBER MARATHON SCHEDULE

17 Big Band Bash!

This is your formal invitation to a night on the town at the Pacifica Palace, where you'll meet the Duke of Ellington, the Count of Basie, an Earl or two, and a host of others in the royal family of jazz bands. Tune in to twenty-four hours of this big band bash...roll back your rugs, break out the jug...we're gonna swing all day and night. Buckingham Palace was never like this!

18 The Abolitionists

"John Brown's body lies a-mouldering in the grave. Already the corpse is changed, under the stone. The strong flesh rotten, the bones dropping away. Cotton will grow next year, in spite of the skull. Slaves will be slaves next year, in spite of the bones. Nothing has changed, John Brown, nothing is changed."

This day will present through song and narrative a picture of slavery and the struggle against it.

19 Oldtime Radio

Who knows what evil lurks in the minds of men... the Shadow do...and we do too. Step back into the past of radio, open the doors of the Inner Sanctum, watch out for the Green Hornet...snap your fingers and sing along with the Mills Brothers, the Ink-spots and the Andrews Sisters. Today is no longer 1977, we've gone back...back...into the archives of the thirties and forties to bring you the sounds of yesteryear...Hi Ho Silver...Awaaaaaay...

20 D.C. Hotline

Got a gripe about the Metro? City Council got you down? Want to argue with someone who can't hit you or arrest you? Depressed about your neighborhood? Today is your day my friend. Call 223-8520. We'll be opening the phones in the station and have remote locations around town so you can raise your voice in protest or complaint and be heard. In our studios we'll have different guests who deal with the issues and you can deal with them. So stay tuned to Radio Free Airwaves....223-8520, WPFW...you're on the air...

21 Doin' It With The Diz

Happy Birthday to you...Happy Birthday to you... Happy Birthday dear Dizzy...Dizzy Gillespie is 60 years young today, and still making music, and we invite you to join his birthday celebration here at 89.3 for twenty-four hours. You'll hear Dizzy and his friends, rap about the music, and from the Master of Be-bop you'll hear music, music and more music. So join us in this musical salute to one of the finest, and keep jazz alive, so there will be many more birthdays.

22 Save The Children

Violent TV programs make violent children, we've been told by educators and child psychologists across the nation, so grownups...turn off the TV today, and turn the young folks on to WPFW's childrens day. Today a day for kids from 6 to 60, chock full of fun and games, childrens music, poetry stories and more. Save the minds of the little folks who'll soon be big folks. Let US be your babysitter today. You can take the TV into another room, or better still, listen along with your young ones. And remember, your children can't send in a check to support children's programming...but you can.

23 Strummin' & Stompin'

Everybody gets the blues sometimes...got those tired of unemployment line blues...or the supermarket stuck in the slow express-line blues or the lost your credit card blues, or you never had a credit card blues...be blue with us all day...and to chase your blues away folk singers lift their voices in songs of hope and harmony

24 Plain Speaking: A Counter History Of The U.S.

Tired of edited, censored, red, white and blue versions of your history? Today's Marathon programming comes to you in ten parts; from the journals of pioneer men and women, the reminiscences of former slaves, the bitter struggles of Native Americans, the picket line memories of workers...perspectives that often escape the notice of conventional historians. This history is a living one, in poetry, drama and song.

25 Women In Washington

Some of them sing songs, some play instruments, some run agencies, some work in them, some police the streets, others take to the streets, some have babies, others deliver them, some are in the White House, others picket it. But they all have one thing in common... they're all women, and today WPFW salutes our sisters. Join us.

26 Move On Up A Little Higher

We're taking you on a highway to heaven, movin' on up with the sounds of Mahalia Jackson in celebration of the day of her birth. Heavenly choirs of Aretha, Marian, James Cleveland, Edwin Hawkins Singers and more sing "Hallelujah!" All gods chillun got songs...and like all good churches we'll be passin' the collection plate.

27 Tongue In Cheek

If you haven't had a belly laugh, or even a chuckle in these depressed/recessed times, Tongue in Cheek is what you need...satire, irony, slapstick and sheer outrageousness...all day and into the night. Join Frenchie in the fun, with folks like Richard Pryor, Bill Cosby, George Carlin, Lenny Bruce, Moms Mabley, Amos and Andy, Lily Tomlin, Firesign Theatre, Cheech and Chong and more...and get your tongue out of your cheek...you may bite it.

28 All The World's A Stage

Alas poor Yorick...we knew him well...Friends, Romans Countrymen, lend us your ears...Romeo...Blanche? No, but we've always depended on the kindness of strangers... In my mothers house there is still God...in your house if you tune in to 89.3FM there will be theatre, drama, melodrama and poems...all day, and you can pop your own popcorn. Take a day of absence from your job and don't commit suicide...the radio is enuff.

29 Samba, Salsa & Spooge

Get your maracas, tin cans, cowbells, steel drums and berimbau ready, be prepared to shake your hips and stomp your feet to the rhythms of Trinidad, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Haiti and Brasil. Learn to dance the samba, the meringue, the jump-up, the bolero as Von Martin, Bill Brown and Betty Diaz bring you the sounds. Turn your volume up and let your hair down... shout out loud and clear...Spooge mon....Spooge!

30 ¡Que Viva Puerto Rico Libre!

Puerto Rico...you lovely island...island of tropical breezes...bet you all saw West Side Story, but Natalie Wood was NOT Puerto Rican. Get the real story of Puerto Ricans in the United States and on the Island and their two centuries of struggle to be free. Join Betty Diaz and friends on this bi-lingual day of history, news and music and you'll learn to say "Que Viva Puerto Rico Libre!"

31 Trick Or Treat?

Booooooooooooo...clank...howl...gobble, gobble, boil and bubble. Thump...Thump...Thump...this is the sound of your telltale heart as you turn off your lights, light up your pumpkin and settle back for a scary day and night of horror on All Hallows Eve. Allow us to introduce ourselves...we want to drink your blood...and rifle your pocketbook...hahahahahaha...come Trick or Treat with us...and if you see a weirdo on your block don't run...it's probably a WPFW volunteer come to get your money...hahahahahaha
